The tsunami of cheap credit that rolled across the planet between 2002 and 2008 was more than a simple financial phenomenon: it was temptation, offering entire societies the chance to reveal aspects of their characters they could not normally afford to indulge.

The Greeks wanted to turn their country into a piÑata stuffed with cash and allow as many citizens as possible to take a whack at it. The Germans wanted to be even more German; the Irish wanted to stop being Irish.

The trademark of Michael Lewis's bestsellers is to tell an important and complex story through characters so outsized and outrageously weird that you'd think they have to be invented. (You'd be wrong.) In Boomerang, we meet a brilliant monk who has figured out how to game Greek capitalism to save his failing monastery; a cod fisherman who, with three days' training, becomes a currency trader for an Icelandic bank; and an Irish real estate developer so outraged by the collapse of his business that he drives across the country to attack the Irish Parliament with his earth-moving equipment.

Lewis's investigation of bubbles beyond our shores is so brilliantly, sadly hilarious that it leads the American listener to a comfortable complacency: Oh, those foolish foreigners. But when Lewis turns a merciless eye on California and Washington DC, we see that the narrative is a trap baited with humor, and we understand the reckoning that awaits the greatest and greediest of debtor nations.

LearnOutLoud.com is very excited to announce that for the first time ever you can download Pimlseur's comprehensive language learning courses on MP3 audio download. We are now offering over 80 of their comprehensive Pimsleur courses. Some of their most popular languages are: Spanish, French, Italian, German, Arabic (Eastern), Mandarin Chinese, Japanese, Russian, Hebrew, and Farsi. Each of these languages has three phases designed to take you from beginner to fluent speaker.

The Pimsleur Method, developed by Dr. Paul Pimsleur, is much more than a simple listen & repeat language learning process. Dr. Pimsleur developed a method of language learning which continually reintegrates all that you've learned so you must draw from your memory at regular intervals to actively retain the language. In each lesson you actually converse out loud with speakers of the language as they aid you in what to say and teach you new vocabulary.

The comprehensive courses feature thirty 30-minute lessons along with a reading booklet and one hour of audio reading lessons for a total of 16 hours of language learning on audio. In just 30 minutes a day you'll go from being a beginner to a proficient speaker of the language in about a month. And as you progress up each up each level you will become a fluent speaker mastering pronunciation, accent, and even cultural knowledge.
